

Doris L Vanderburg-Bloede

March 14, 1924 - February 17, 2018

Doris L. Vanderburg-Bloede passed away on Saturday, February 17, 2018 at AngelsGrace Hospice at the age of 93. She was born in Oconomowoc, WI on March 14, 1924, daughter of Craney (Jake) and Veronica (Smasal) Jacobson. Doris was married to Otto (Van) Vanderburg and together they owned and operated a dairy cattle business in North Prairie, WI, where they shipped dairy calves nationwide and exported cattle to countries like the Virgin Islands, Puerto Rico and Venezuela. They also delivered several shipments of dairy cattle to Cuba in 1961, where Doris became the first woman to deliver a load of cattle to Cuba. Otto (Van) passed away at the early age of 52. Later, Doris married Edward Bloede. He preceded her in death on June 24, 2010. Doris worked for 18 years until her retirement as a registrar and recruiter for the State College of Beauty Culture in Wauwatosa. While working there, she was instrumental in holding the school enrollment at 100%. While at the school, she counseled and mentored ladies and men to excel and reach their dreams. In her retirement, she worked for the Department of Aging in Waukesha where she managed the meal site. For 20 years, she volunteered at Waukesha Memorial Hospital. She was a member of St. Paul Catholic Church in Genesee Depot, WI. She enjoyed snow skiing, golf and roller skating in her younger years. She will always be remembered as an excellent cook. Doris was admired by all and touched the hearts of everyone she met, young and old. Most of all she loved family and friends.

She was preceded in death by her son Richard (Kathy) Vanderburg of Niceville, Florida. She will be sadly missed by her children, Pete (Kathy) Vanderburg of Blanchard, Oklahoma and Stephen Vanderburg (Fiancée Julie) of Barnes, WI. Her sister Carolyn (the late Doug) Schoenfeld of Oconomowoc, WI. Her grandchildren Peter S. II (Debbie) Vanderburg of Bentonville, Arkansas, Billy (Jennifer) Vanderburg of Cape Coral, Florida, Matt (Melissa) Vanderburg of Monroe, WI, Jennifer Vanderburg of Cable, WI and Trever (Melissa) Vanderburg of Superior, WI. Great-grandchildren Julyeun, Cody, Destiny, Desiree Jakob, Peter Scott III, Rhett, Samantha, Myah and Temperance. Step-children Mark (Carol) Bloede and John Bloede both of Waukesha, WI, Step-grandchildren Ashley Bloede, Greg (Rebecca) Bloede, Kirsten (Mike) Steffens, Maribeth Bloede. Step great-grandchildren and many nieces, nephews, other relatives and many friends.

Visitation will be held on Wednesday, February 21, 2018 from 9:30 AM until the 11:15 AM funeral Mass at St. Paul Catholic Church (corner of Hwy D and Hwy 83 in Genesee Depot). Graveside services will follow at St. Paul Cemetery. Memorials may be given to AngelsGrace Hospice N74 W35908 Servants' Way, Oconomowoc, WI 53066.

“ Dorie was ALWAYS my 2nd MOM... she's always been a part of my life (70+ years) and I loved her. My sister and I adored her - along with my Mother(Shirl) & Midge they were the 3 Musketeers having such a bonded friendship of fun, laughs and familial dedication..... They were a joy to be around and all are now back together... heaven sent

“ I observed a delightful woman in Mrs. Vanderburg anytime I saw her in Oklahoma City visiting Pete Sr. Through the years Pete shared many stories about his mom that were entertaining to say the least. I know all her friends and family will miss her and celebrate her life for a long, long time. Best wishes to all blessed by knowing Mrs. Vanderburg. Dave Chapman
