“ Auntie Josie and I were close starting with many weekends spent at her and Grammas house with Lynn and Lee at a young age. She was always so patient with our loud playing and incessant giggling. When I became an adult she was there whenever anyone had a problem especially the hardest week of my life in 1988. I stayed with her and she was an angel. All the cousins have mountains of good memories with her and the wonderful lessons she taught us. She is gold, not silver, she is diamonds, not rubies...she is always the best. Can't wait to see you again Auntie Josie!
